switchboard
connecting resettlement experts

IMMIGRATION LEGAL SERVICES COMMUNITY OF PRACTICE

What is a community of practice?

A community of practice (CoP) is a member-led virtual space where resettlement professionals in similar roles learn from one another. Members share resources, talk through problems of practice and build relationships with colleagues who understand the work. Switchboard hosts eight CoPs for service providers working with Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR)-eligible populations.

Learn from peers who experience similar challenges.

Solve problems together
Bring your questions and share best practices

Build Your Network
Connect with providers across the country

What We Share in This Community:

- In partnership with Switchboard, VECINA facilitates this community for Immigration Legal Services (ILS)
- Networking with ILS providers to share best practices about program management
- Discussions designed to improve immigration legal services, such as best practices in conducting intakes, client services, staff training and development, and more

Who this community is for

- Attorneys
- Department of Justice (DOJ)-accredited representatives at ILS programs that receive ORR funding

Apply to join

If your organization supports refugees or ORR-eligible populations in the U.S., apply to join this Switchboard CoP today: https://learning.switchboardta.org/products/communities/vecina-immigration-legal-services-community-of-practice