MONITORING & EVALUATION AND APPLIED RESEARCH COMMUNITY OF PRACTICE

What is a community of practice?

A community of practice (CoP) is a member-led virtual space where resettlement professionals in similar roles learn from one another. Members share resources, talk through problems of practice and build relationships with colleagues who understand the work. Switchboard hosts eight CoPs for service providers working with Office of Refugee Resettlement (ORR)-eligible populations.

What We Share in This Community:

- A collaborative, supportive space to share learningand explore practical strategies for integrating evidence into everyday work.
- Discussions on topics such as designing and adapting M&E and participatory research frameworks, collecting, managing, and analyzing high-quality data, translating findings into actionable insights, and applying evidence-based practices to strengthen services and client outcomes.

Who this community is for:

- Service providers and researchers who are committed to using data and research to improve program outcomes
- Open to individuals of all experience levels—from those new to M&E and research to seasoned evaluators and researchers
